

Taking your children back to the war years.

Learn what life was like for many families during World War Two through...

Songs • Drama • Quiz Games • Sound Clips • Artefacts
Problem solving • Role Play • Developing vocabulary

No need for pupil travel charges and risk assessment forms. When I come to visit your school I will deliver either a hall or class based performance based on specific units or elements of the National Curriculum.

Themes covered -

- Setting the scene - War is announced
- Evacuation - Feelings and emotions
- ARP Wardens, Home Guard and Land Army
- 'Chin Up' - Morale boosting songs and phrases
- 'Make Do and Mend' - Recycling
- Digging for Victory - Healthy eating
- Emotions and Feelings - PSHCE
- The Role of Women
- The Blitz
- Keeping Peace in the World today

This performance can be used to -

- Help to support the staff in offering a different approach to learning through new ideas.
- Introduce and stimulate interest in a unit of work.
- Supplement what is presently being taught.
- Review and reprise elements that are expected to be covered in the curriculum.

My name is Steve Robinson. For the past thirty five years I have been a practicing Primary School teacher in an inner city school. Over the years I have fulfilled the role of Class teacher, Deputy Head teacher and Acting Head teacher.

"Steve is a practitioner in awe and wonder. An outstanding teacher in every sense."
Salema McEwan – Headteacher

"An outstanding teacher. Passionate, energetic, visionary... a dream maker"
Chris Clark - School Improvement Officer - Education Bradford.
